CLIENT INFORMATION & CONSENT FORM
What to expect from Reiki Sessions, Intuitive Consultations, and Energy Medicine Classes.

Humans are multi-dimensional beings with interconnected physical, emotional and spiritual bodies. Ancient disciplines - such as Chinese medicine, acupuncture, yoga, and reiki - acknowledge the existence of subtle energy systems within and around the physical body that are the conduit for subtle energies which bring vitality to all living beings.

During reiki treatments, intuitive coaching, and energy healing classes, holistic techniques - such as grounding, earth energy, life-force energy, reiki, and intuitive information - are applied to heal the subtle energy systems. The focus of these techniques is to support the natural healing process of the individual's subtle body and spirit.

How you feel after a session/class may vary depending on the topic covered. Oftentimes, an individual may feel an increased flow of energy throughout their body and personal space creating an increased sense of wellbeing. However, the work can bring about the release of old emotions such as grief, sadness or anger as part of the healing process. The process may also bring to your attention outdated energetic patterns in your life, including but not limited to, relationships with family, friends, and work. Clearing imbalances in your subtle body may be reflected in your relationships with others and the world.

If you experience any discomfort that you believe is a result of a consultation, energy healing or classwork, please communicate this experience to Laura. It is your responsibility to communicate with her if the session/class feels incomplete. Some issues may require additional sessions, consultations or a referral to another health care practitioner.
